

I recently moved and received a new phone number. I registered do no call and have to wait 30 days for it to become effective. I get on average 15 "cold calls" per day. A lot do not even say anything and apparantly are not on the line when I answer the phone. These people are rude and bothersome. If I want their company I will call THEM>